Jackson Senyonga
Founder and Sr. Pastor, Christian Life Church
Kampala, Uganda, East Africa

Jackson Senyonga is an international prayer leader and an inspirational, motivational speaker. He is the founder and senior pastor of Christian Life Church in Kampala, Uganda, in East Africa with 40,000 members. Christian Life Church (CLC) has planted 150+ churches in four countries in Africa. Jackson has seen God's grace at work as the start of his church of 7 skyrocketed to 2000 people in two weeks. CLC owns two high tower radio stations and a television network. Kampala FM 99.6 broadcasts around the clock to over 2,000,000 people in the greater Kampala area. Tower of Praise (TOP) Radio 89.6FM has become "The Voice of the Nation" advocating unity, nationwide prayer mobilization, leadership training and great Christian music, reaching over 28,000,000 Ugandans in every city and village 24/7. TOP TV is presently reaching 4,000,000-5,000,000 Ugandans with Christian programming in English as well as the native languages and dialects. State-of-the-art radio and television studios are presently under construction on a mountaintop on the outskirts of Kampala. CLC makes these networks available to the entire body of Christ, going beyond her four walls.

Jackson has also witnessed the power of God's transformation in his nation. He has been a catalyst for bringing leaders across the denominations together in cities across America as well as many other nations. His insights of the principles for transformation, prayer, and unity have been a valuable resource and have been adapted and applied in different cities. This young servant of uncommon faith and vision has found incredible favor and has counseled with high profile governmental leaders in Uganda such as the president, cabinet ministers, mayors, members of parliament, etc. He also leads a coalition of 600 churches from different denominations in Kampala, the capital city of his nation, toward transformation. In America, Jackson has addressed and shared ministry opportunities with governors, senators, mayors, and spiritual leaders such as Ted Haggard, Jim Cymbala, Jack Hayford, Bill Bright, Pat Robertson, A.R. Bernard, John Kilpatrick and many others. He has recently been featured on the 700 Club Live and on other Christian and secular television talk and radio shows, local newspapers. Jackson contributes all the success to the true source - God and His grace. He says, "Jesus was very serious when He said, 'Apart from me, you cannot do anything.'" "The honor that I receive is to come from a land that God has transformed. TO GOD BE ALL THE GLORY!"

Pastor Jackson feels that there are three missions that God wants him to share:

1. To see churches, cities and nations transformed as they have witnessed in Uganda and he believes that this will happen as leaders and churches come together to implement the "Six Levels of Prayer" as a model that God has given to the nation of Uganda.
2. To motivate and encourage individual believers in churches to rise in faith, commitment and ministry to strengthen and serve their local church with undivided hearts. He believes and says that "there is no such thing as spiritual unemployment in God's Kingdom."
3. To see local congregations receive the grace to grow exponentially as they look to the harvest that is right, ripe, and ready.

Jackson and other Ugandan leaders have been featured on the Transformations II video produced by George Otis, Jr., and The Sentinel Group, which tells the story of God's transformation which is still sweeping through that nation. On December 26, 2003, 3+ million Christians in the nation gathered in 50 stadiums to blanket Uganda and nations of the world in prayer.

Jackson Senyonga has been a much sought after speaker in churches and city wide prayer services across the US, Canada, Europe, Asia, Australia, etc. His style of ministry springs from a spirit of humility and comes across through motivational preaching, incredible faith and a sense of humor that will provoke you to step out and believe God for transformation in your life, ministry, city and nation.
